

The Community Water Resource Center Presents Injury, Regulation, or Freedom

Property Rights, Environmental Regulation and Water Quality in the Coeur d'Alene Basin

April 22nd @ NIC Student Union Building
Lake Coeur d'Alene Room

A Film and Community Discussion Event

"The Unforeseen"

-A film about a political collision between property rights and land use regulation
(Sundance 2007)

National Experts:

Randal O'Toole

Senior Fellow, Cato Institute

John Echeverria

Professor, Vermont Law School

Event Schedule:

1:00 - Film: The Unforeseen

2:30 - Panel: Invisible Danger

Metal Contamination in Lake Cd'A

- Laura Laumatia, Coeur d'Alene Tribe

- Glen Rothrock, IDEQ

3:30 - Break

3:45 - Panel: Finding the Balance

Local Perspective

- John Magnuson, Coeur d'Alene

Lakeshore Property Owners Association

- Scott Reed, Attorney

4:45 - Break: Light Refreshments Provided

5:00 - Film: The Unforeseen

6:30 - Keynote Panel

North Idaho College

Kootenai Environmental Alliance

Idaho Conservation League

CUAHSI
universities allied for water research

University of Idaho
Coeur d'Alene